

Primary 4-6 Scavenger Hunt

Try and find the Answers to the Questions Below- Happy Hunting!

The Rock Pool

What is a crabs shell called?

Skeleton Exoskeleton Retroskeleton

True or False?

A crabs shell grows bigger each year.

True False

What type of feet does a starfish have?

Square feet Tube Feet Smelly Feet

The Sharks!

Deep Sea World is famous for its sharks. There are 3 main differences between a fish and a shark. Try and Find out what they are!

A fish has 2 visible gill slits for breathing, and a shark has.....

2 4 6 8 10

A shark has a skeleton made of cartilage, and a fish has a skeleton made of

Plastic Bone Wood

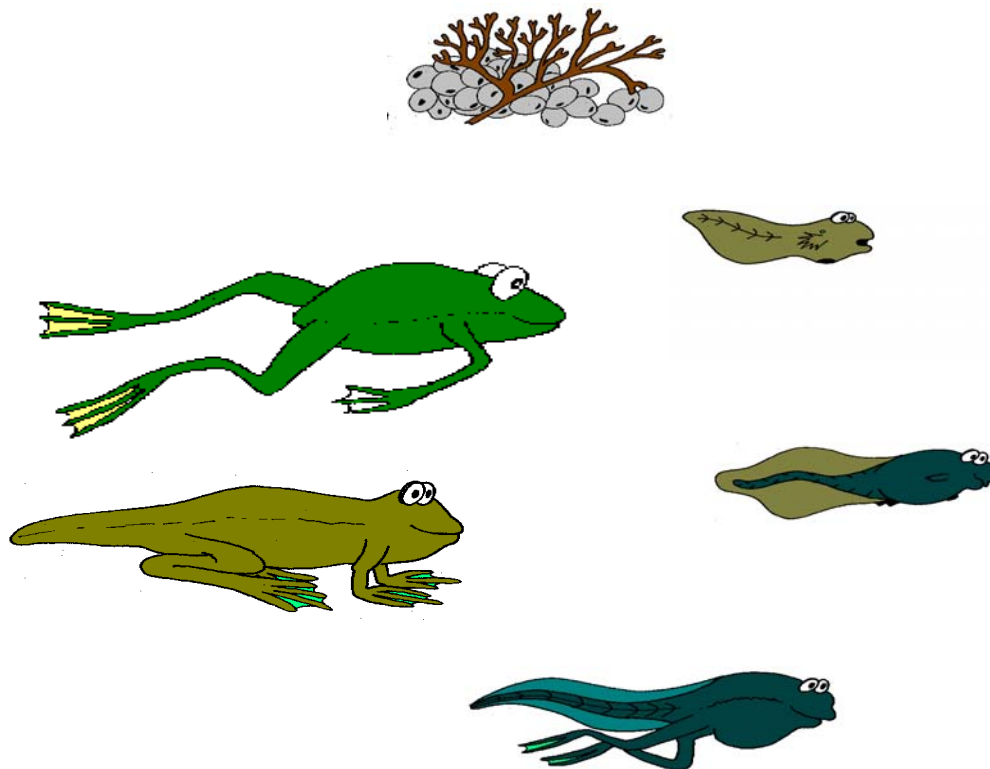

Fish scales are like fingernails, and shark scales are like.....

Leaves Petals Teeth

Amphibians

Draw arrows below to complete the lifecycle of a frog.

Frog Eggs are known as.....

Spores Spawn Spares

True or False?

Tadpoles grow legs and lose their tails to turn them into a frog

True False

Tree frogs have suckers on their feet to help them.....

Climb Jump Crawl Hold onto trees

The most poisonous frog in the world is the.....

Cane toad Golden Arrow Frog Green and black poison frog

Seals

What is the largest seal in the world?

The Grey Seal Cape Fur Seal The Southern Elephant Seal

Seals have a good sense of smell in the water

True False

How long can seals hold their breath?

20 minutes 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours 5 hours

Name the type of seals we have at Deep Sea World

The Underwater Tunnel

What do you call crabs and lobsters eggs?

Berries Grapes Bananas

Rays lay eggs called mermaids purses

True False

The underwater tunnel is 112 metres long

True False

Congratulations!

You have completed the Deep Sea World Scavenger Hunt

Name _____

School _____